Alkmaar is obviously famous as a cheese town: for centuries the world-famous cheese market has been held here on Friday mornings from April to September. A real North Holland tradition that brings a great deal of activity and cheerfulness. Visitors from across the globe come here to view the spectacle. The colourful hats of the cheese bearers, the hand clap of the cheese traders and the vibrant surrounding market make a visit to the Alkmaar cheese market the perfect day out. After the visit to the cheese market you have time at leisure in Alkmaar. There is much more to experience than cheese alone. Take a lovely walking tour or have lunch on de Grote Markt (not included today). When we leave Alkmaar we will drive along the bulb fields around Egmond and Bergen. Dinner is arranged in Rotterdam, in the Breeplein Church, where we will perform tonight. Overnight in Hotel Postillion Dordrecht

We will start the day with a visit to Scheveningen, famous because of the Kurhaus and walking promenade along the beach. After lunch in Scheveningen (not included) we drive to Gouda, where we will visit the Goudse Waag, the Cheese and Crafts Museum; an authentic building, designed in 1668 by architect Pieter Post. The ground floor of the Goudse Waag was formerly used to weigh cheese, among other things. Today, the Goudse Waag houses the Cheese and Crafts Museum. There, one can learn about the building's history, the products weighed and traded and how cheese is made. What could be nicer than baking your own Gouda syrup waffles in Gouda? And you can - at the Van Vliet syrup waffle bakery! They have been baking syrup waffles for over 100 years, according to a very old, secret recipe. You can have a look in the bakery during the production process and learn all about the history of the syrup waffle. Afterwards, you can try your hand at baking a syrup waffle under the watchful eye of an expert syrup-waffle baker. After some time at leisure in Gouda, dinner is arranged in the church, where we
